ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM

An integrated entertainment system, BEST (Benetti Exclusive Sea Technology), is installed in Master cabin, main saloon, and as extra on board, in one Vip cabin and one Guest cabin.

BEST is a new exclusive technologic platform created by Benetti that integrates all the onboard electrical system. In BEST all subsystem, although different for functionality and technology can communicate with each other using a common language: television really “talks” to lights as well as cameras “talk” to phone. This is possible because every function has an open interface that enables communication with the rest of the system. BEST is made up of a single network infrastructure and middleware software that correlate all devices and different components through the exchange of signals and events
